

Can you decipher the cryptic clues to find the titles of books suitable for readers aged 9-11?

1. Kindly carer whose umbrella isn't just to keep off the rain.
2. Cramped orphan finds newly found freedom at a magical home.
3. Boy who's scared of his own shadow writes comic autobiography.

Can you identify which books these quotes are from by unscrambling the anagram?

- 'As solitary as an oyster' – As armchairs clot
'Please Sir, I want some more' – Elvis or twit
'I am the maker of music, the dreamer of dreams!' -
Accidental Chattahoochee florry

What is your favourite book?

What genre is it?

Why did you enjoy it?

How would you encourage others to read it?

Can you design a book cover for a new edition of your favourite book?

Answers

Can you decipher the cryptic clues to find the titles of books suitable for readers aged 9-11?

1. Kindly carer whose umbrella isn't just to keep the rain off. Mary Poppins
2. Cramped orphan finds newly found freedom at a magical home. Harry Potter
3. Boy who's scared of his own shadow writes comic autobiography. Diary of a Wimpy Kid

Can you identify which books these quotes are from by unscrambling the anagram?

'As solitary as an oyster' – As armchairs clot

A Christmas Carol

'Please Sir, I want some more' – Elvis or twit

Oliver Twist

'I am the maker of music, the dreamer of dreams!' -
Accidental Chattahoochee florry

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

