

We are the English Department!

Would you like to ask us a question?

Who are you and what do you do?

What is your favourite thing about working at PGS?

Can you tell us a fun fact about yourself please?

I am Mrs Mann and my job at PGS is CSL for English

I love being able to talk about books with students and share my love of literature with them!

I went to Melbourne, Australia, as part of a teacher exchange programme. Whilst there I met Karl Kennedy from Neighbours!

I am Miss Almond and my job at PGS is Teacher of English

I enjoy being part of a team who are passionate about English.

I sing in 3 bands!

I am Mrs Atkinson and my job at PGS is Teacher of English

I appreciate working at Penistone because of the supportive culture it promotes within the learning community.

I was part of a teacher exchange programme in Canada.

I am Mrs Barker and my job at PGS is Teacher of English

Hearing students' interpretations of the characters and texts that we study; I love to see their passion for English grow a long with their own confidence and self expression.

I am actually a qualified scuba diver (open water 20 metres) and spend most of my spare time with my little girl Anya, and my two ponies, Molly and Heather.

I am Ms Breslin and my job at PGS is Teacher of English and Lead Head of House

I love being part of such a friendly and supportive community where kindness abounds. The students are hard working and their creativity and ideas inspire me every day.

I took a group of 20 students on a trip to Peru for a month, doing project work and expeditions.

I am Mrs Fearnely and my job at PGS is Teacher of English

I enjoy working at Penistone because I get to teach a subject I love!

I saw Donald Trump when I visited New York.

I am Mrs Flintoft and my job at PGS is Teacher of English

I enjoy working alongside motivated students that want to learn.

I have climbed Mount Roraima in South America.

I am Mr Jenkins and my job at PGS is Teacher of English

The students and staff make PGS an enjoyable and stimulating place to work and teach at.

I am a blue belt in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu.

I am Mr Lloyd and my job at PGS is TLR with responsibility for KS4

I enjoy working alongside excellent teachers and teaching our enthusiastic and friendly students.

I have completed 5 marathons, one of which was in Iceland.

I am Miss Lockwood and my job at PGS is Teacher of English

I enjoy working at PGS because of its friendly, supportive atmosphere.

I have an ex-racing greyhound called Morris.

I am Mrs Marrow and my job at PGS is Teacher of English and Lead for academic vocabulary and reading across the curriculum

PGS students truly challenge and motivate me every day with their ideas, passion and creativity.

I am incredibly clumsy - I almost got run over trying to get an autograph from Mr Bean in London.

I am Mrs Pearce and my job at PGS is Second in Department

It's like being part of a big family.

I have been around the Isle of Man TT course on my motorbike.

I am Miss Stokes and my job at PGS is TLR with responsibility for KS5

I enjoy sharing my love of literature and the English language with our enthusiastic and motivated students.

I spent part of my teacher training working at a dual-language college in the Netherlands.

I am Miss Tyas and my job at PGS is HLTA for English

I love the fact that my role enables me to support students to aim high and be confident learners.

I have spoken on BBC Radio York!

I am Mr Wood and my job at PGS is Teacher of English

I love teaching Literature and experiencing the drama with our brilliant students

I studied for my degree in a Welsh castle that looked just like Hogwarts

