Revision at Home

1. RAG rate your knowledge – follow the QR code to a RAG rating sheet.
2. Start with topics that you find the most difficult
3. Ask your teacher if there is something that you do not understand. We cannot remember things that we do not understand.
4. Top tip: start now. Do 15 minutes a day so that you are not overwhelmed by the volume of knowledge that you need.
5. Use the revision checklists in the front of your books to check your understanding and recall all key concepts within all topics.
6. Draw up a table of the sociological perspectives on the family, education, crime & deviance & stratification with evaluation points on each
7. Make essential knowledge sheets for all main areas within each examination topic.
8. Utilise resources on Teams (in the 'Shared' area)
9. Revise with the GCSE WJEC Revision guide.
10. Attend the after-school intervention sessions (after school on a Thursday).
11. Be proactive in your revision. E.g. Read information from your topic areas, apply your knowledge to practice questions and then green for growth your responses.

Key Information

Scan the QR Code for direct access to the WJEC Eduqas Website. This will take you to past papers, mark schemes and revision resources.

- Create a revision timetable so that you can condense the large amount of information required to learn into the time available. Use the revision checklists to do this.
- Support your answer with examples and statistics to show your wealth of knowledge.
- Show off your knowledge of key concepts and perspectives to secure A02 marks.
- In your extended questions with command terms like 'assess' or 'discuss' = come to your own judgement (to secure A03 marks available).
- Refer to research context in Component 2 Research Methods questions – this will help to secure all marks available.
