

How often do students in Year 7 study Drama?

Year 7 students have 2 lessons of Drama per fortnight, usually 1 lesson each week.

What do you learn about in Drama in Year 7?

In Drama at PGS, EVERY student learns how to develop their confidence and performance-based skills. Through exploring a range of stories, plays and improvisation activities, from the harrowing Greek Myths of the Minotaur and Medusa to the absurdly hilarious art form of Silent Movies, students are given the opportunity to perform short pieces and build transferrable skills that will not only help them in other subjects, but also in life! We call these the 6 Cs: Confidence, Concentration, Communication, Co-Operation, Commitment, and Control.

What skills will you develop in Drama during Year 7?

Drama is an invaluable subject which offers students the chance to express their artistic and creative skills through the use of teamwork, script and improvisation activities. Our lessons embed performance at the heart of everything we do in Drama, meaning that confidence in being able to speak and perform in front of others is something that we build upon regularly. A high level of teamwork will also ensure that students are able to communicate their ideas effectively as an ensemble.

What is the best thing about studying Drama?

Drama is a fun, lively subject, where students are encouraged to let their inhibitions go and explore new and exciting characters! We perform every lesson, and love to show off what our amazing Year 7 students can do!

Do you have any top tips for new Year 7 students studying Drama?

Always work as a team, learn your lines, and enjoy your performance!
